IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UCSD PROFESSOR TO SPEAK OF FACULTY SENATE AT USD

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--Dr. Gabriel Jackson, chairman of the UCSD Faculty Senate, will address a meeting at the University of San Diego at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 28 in the Rose Room.

Dr. Jackson's topic will be "Faculty Senate: Promises and Problems." The joint faculty of USD is presently considering the formation of a faculty senate. He is chairman of UCSD Department of History.

The meeting is sponsored jointly by the Faculty Association of the College for Men and the USD chapter of the American Association of University Professors.

The University has academically unified with the San Diego College for Women, resulting in a single academic institution. The two are still separate legally, with two faculty bodies. Most academic departments have merged, however, into a single entity for the two coordinate colleges.
